Missouri Murders.

The trial of Mrs. Alma Proctor Vaughn and Dr. Hull of Monroe City, charged with poisoning Prof. J. T. Vaughn of Kirksville last October, will start at Lancaster, Dec. 6.

Oda Hubbell, his wife, their daughter, aged 6 and their son, aged 4, were murdered and their bodies burned to a crisp Sunday night at their home, east of Barnard. Ezekiah Rascoe was arrested Nov. 21 at the home of his father, near Gilford, charged with horrible crime. A strong chain of circumstantial evidence has enmeshed Rascoe. Hubbell won $200 from him in a poker game Saturday night and this is the alleged motive. He can not give an account of his whereabouts Sunday night. To escape lynching Rascoe was hustled to jail at St. Joseph in an auto. He has served a prison term for murder. Of Mrs. John Baumes at Arkoe, Mo., Oct. 2 1896.

Mexico is in the throes of a real revolution. More than 1,000 men, women and children have been slain or wounded. The U. S. troops have been dispatched, equipped for 30 days, to Del Rio, Tex., to guard our border from attacks of the revolutionists. The rebellion is lead by Francisco I Madero and 1,000 Yaqui Indians will take the field to support them. President Diaz, aided by Vice President Ramon Corvial has taken personal command of the government forces.

Crippen Confesses.

His last hope for life gone, Dr. H. H. Crippen confessed Monday, according to reports, of the murder of his wife, Belle Elmore. The Rev. Father Corville, a Roman Catholic priest, was called when Crippen desired to make a statement and it was to him that the alleged confession was made. The conference with Father Corville lasted two hours, after which Father Corville went immediately to Scotland yards, which circumstance pointed to a confession.

Plan that Winter Trip

You've already begun to have indefinite ideas of a winter trip. Where will you go? Southern California? San Antonio? Mexico City? Hot Springs? New Orleans? If I can be of any service to you in making a decision, you may be sure I should be pleased to be called into conference with you. I wish you'd let me point out the advantages of places along the Missouri Pacific-iron Mountain lines. Let me present facts, booklets and pictures, routes, time-tables and train-connections, for your consideration. Let me tell you about our excellent train service, dining cars and other important features. Drop me a line about it To-day—before you forget it.
